God's Vision for Justice: Lessons from Amos 5

God's Perspective on Injustice

Religion Cannot Cover Injustice:
Religious ritual cannot replace treating people right and genuinely seeking God.

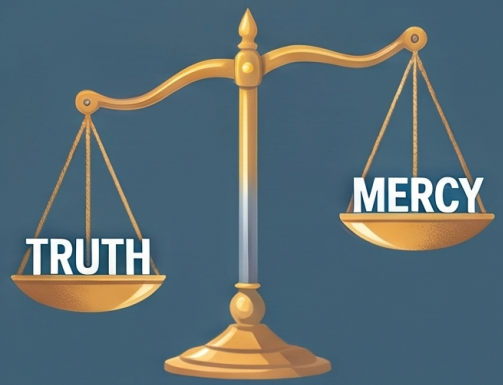

God Demands Truth and Protection for the Vulnerable:
God rejects corrupt courts, oppression of the poor, and dishonest leadership.

Unjust Societies Face Certain Doom, But Can Turn Around:
Judgment is inovitable for persistent oppression, yet God offers mercy to those who repent.

God's Vision

A Framework for Living Justly

Active Engagement: Hate Evil and Love Good
Living justly requires rejecting passivity to actively delight in good and reject evil.

The Six Respects for Loving People
A practical model honoring family, life, marriage, property, truth, and contentment.

True Faith Requires Action
Authentic Christian faith is expressed through sacrificial love and good works, not routine.
