BYOB: Bring Your Own Bible (to church)

We live in a digital world, and many of us enjoy bringing a Bible to church on our phones or tablets. Having so many Bible versions at our fingertips is a truly wonderful gift. Still, I'd love to invite you to bring your paper Bible to church.

Together, we can show our confidence in the truth and power of God's Word and help our young people see how much the Bible matters. Imagine the sound of pages turning as we stand together to hear the Gospel reading!

I also encourage you to make your Bible part of the sermon: write the date, underline meaningful words, and jot down the outline in the margins. Let those notes become reminders of what we're learning together.

Let's BYOB—together!
